A walk on the water!

Imagine leaving the Sheraton Four Points Hotel, where those of you who visited the community in recent years may have stayed and taking a picture perfect stroll over the harbor on the One Mile Peace River Bridge. As you reach the end, you'll approach one of the most tranquil waterfront parks which is where your unique “walk on the water” begins.

This 2,000 foot scenic boardwalk meandering under and between the northbound and southbound bridges is mostly built right over Charlotte Harbor; just a few feet over the water! It's common to encounter fishermen, joggers, and walkers taking in the incredible views across the Harbor. Don't be surprised if you spot one of our playful dolphins swimming by!

The boardwalk ends at the beginning of the Sunseeker Resort! When completed, this new waterfront resort will be the largest in Florida. The $420 million project will feature 510 hotel rooms, 180 extended stay units, 17 restaurants, a health club, and a full service marina.

As we've said before, the community just keeps getting better!
